

Cancellation Policy

Bluestone Village reserves the right to cancel a camp session due to insufficient enrollment. If Bluestone cancels a session, all fees will be fully refunded.

Payments are due 14 days before the first day of the camp session.

Cancellations that occur at least 14 days before the first day of the registered camp week will be fully refunded.

Cancellations that occur less than 14 days before the first day of camp are non-refundable.

When registering in advance, payment is due within 14 days of your camp session. If payment is not received, your registration for that week will be canceled.
